The success mark is 40 as long as a minimum number of achievement on Creativity, Action and Services (CAS).

The Diploma has a success rate of 80 % with less than 1 % of students achieving 100 % marks.

The award is based on the value assigned to the amount or volume of learning required to complete a unit and the learning outcomes to their fulfillment of the core knowledge, skills and competencies. The number of notional study hours required for achieving the learning outcomes is as follows:

1 credit hour = 15 clock hours with the clock hour defined as 20 minutes.

A "CREDIT HOUR" is the measuring educational CREDIT, usually based on the number of classroom hours per week throughout a term. Students are awarded credit for classes on the basis of the Carnegie unit. This defines a semester not of credit as equal to a minimum of 3 hours per week for a semester. One semester credit hour is equal to at least 37.5 clock hours if instruction. The remaining 7.5 clock hours may include acceptable and student work outside of class and/or instructional hours.

To find your GPA weighted by credit hours, follow these steps:

1. Multiply each numeric grade value by the number of credits, the course worth.

2. Add these numbers together.

3. Divide the number of the credits you obtain, in this example, 13.

4. Credit Hours GPA = 3.46.

5. Convert your qualifications and grades into a numerical value. Many qualifications are of different size, and the grade achieved.

6. The International Diploma in teaching qualification has the following UCAS points that are calculated based on the following table:

A	B+	B	C
96	72	48

(not all) have a UCAS point value which will vary
